San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives have arrested two suspects involved in the July, 2006 murders of Tori Vienneau and her 10-month-old son, Dean Springstube.

At the time of the murders, Tori and Dean were living in an apartment in Mountain View. On July 26, 2006, at approximately 8:50 p.m., their roommate found Tori and Dean strangled to death.

Homicide Team III investigated the case for the past 18 months and coordinated the investigation with the Family Protection Unit of the District Attorney's Office. This morning, detectives obtained arrest warrants charging Dennis Potts, 23, with two counts of murder and conspiracy to obstruct justice, and Max Corn, 23, with conspiracy to obstruct justice.

At 9:05 a.m., detectives arrested Corn as he used an ATM at 4500 Bonita Road in Bonita. At 9:55 a.m., detectives arrested Potts as he drove in the 4900 block of Bonita Road.
